DIARY OF SUMMER

2025 COLLECTION
BY GURIA BEACHWEAR

Dear Diary,

Today, I'm bursting with excitement about our new Summer 2025 Collection! It's inspired by those endless summer days that inevitably become cherished moments.

Imagine styles that flatter every body type, starting with a fresh take on nautical chic, perfect for those breezy sailing adventures.

The palette? Think dreamy shades of green and gold, reminiscent of far-off island getaways.

Then there are the desert-inspired pieces, in warm terracotta hues and textures that invite relaxation in tranquil places.

And let's not forget the vibrant bursts of color designed for poolside parties—because summer isn't complete without a splash of joy! Reflecting on these designs, I can't help but wonder what unforgettable summer memories will be made next. Tell me, what stories do you hold within your pages?

Love, Guria

OUR STORY

Growing up in Brazil, my mother worked in the fashion business. When I was a teen, I remember going to the Garment District in New York with her to shop for my mom's retail store.

As she picked out the finest garments she could find for her special customers whom she knew so well, I stood by her side, so excited. When she would ask my opinion on a style, it made me feel special.

Fashion was my mom's legacy, as my grandfather was known as one of the top tailors in Brazil.

He was a manufacturer of the finest Men's dress shirts.

Another passion for me growing up was the beach culture.

Being in the ocean made me feel such joy... surfing the waves made me feel free! I became obsessed with this culture.

With these memories, and this background, is it any wonder that I became a swimwear designer?

For me, it was inevitable, like a calling.

Fashion is an expression of how you feel.

Bikinis make me feel like summer. Alive, an ocean breeze, sand on my toes, sun on my cheeks.

This is how I want you to feel in your Guria.

I want you to feel the passion of summer. Of youth. Of family.

Guria Beachwear is my legacy and I'm so happy to share it with you; I hope it makes you feel something.

-with love, Camila Ckless

Fun in the Sun

On boat!

Where to next?

Fun in the sun!

I spent hours sailing, letting the wind guide me,
the waves whispering secrets only the sea knows.

Met incredible people, each with a story that made me see the world a little different...

Laughed until my stomach hurt, danced
the stars, and let go of time.
